SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

2027

After a ten-year absence, Canada returns to the International Catering Cup in Lyon, one of the most prestigious stages in global culinary competition. This is more than a competition entry. It is a national culinary story with real media, hospitality, and brand-partnership potential.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Held in Lyon during Sirha, alongside the Bocuse d'Or, the International Catering Cup brings together national teams for one of the hospitality industry's most respected culinary competitions. It places creativity, technical precision, service, pastry and teamwork on an international stage before leading professionals, media and decision-makers from across the global food and hospitality sector.

Team Canada will be represented by Chef de Cuisine and Team Captain Donnel English, Pastry Chef Nicolas Parsy, and Executive Chef and Team Coach Kevin Ramasawmy. All three are part of the culinary team at Bar George in Montréal, giving the campaign a unified identity, a credible home base and a strong foundation for training, storytelling, media and sponsor activations before, during and after Lyon.

A NATIONAL CULINARY COMEBACK

Canada's return after ten years gives partners a rare opportunity to become part of a clear national story: three Montréal chefs bringing Canada back to the international catering stage. It is a moment built around representation, ambition and shared pride.

A PLATFORM BUILT FOR PARTNERS

The campaign combines competition visibility with chef-led content, product integration, media opportunities and activations at Bar George. Partners can support the team in ways that feel relevant to their brand and remain visible throughout the journey.

THE PARTNERSHIP JOURNEY

From the first team announcement to the final competition recap, partners become part of a focused campaign built around preparation, storytelling, competition coverage and Team Canada's return from Lyon.

01 THE ROAD TO LYON

The campaign follows the chefs as they train, develop their competition program and prepare to represent Canada on the international stage. Partners can be integrated naturally into the journey through products, services, experiences and shared storytelling.

02 CONTENT ACROSS THE CAMPAIGN

Partnership opportunities may include chef-led content, behind-the-scenes moments, product integration, social media recognition, professional photography and coverage surrounding the competition.

03 MEANINGFUL ACCESS TO THE TEAM

Depending on the partnership level, brands may connect with the team through tastings, hosted dinners, chef appearances, media opportunities and customized activations at Bar George.

04 A STORY THAT CONTINUES

The campaign does not end on competition day. Results coverage, behind-the-scenes content, sponsor recaps and post-event activations extend the story beyond Lyon and give partners additional opportunities to share the journey.

WHY PARTNER WITH TEAM CANADA?

Canada's return to the International Catering Cup is more than a competition. It is a national comeback story led by three chefs whose combined expertise spans culinary leadership, savoury cuisine and pastry, supported by Bar George and built into a year-long platform for partners.

A 10-YEAR COMEBACK STORY

Canada has not competed at the International Catering Cup since 2017. ICC 2027 gives partners a rare opportunity to help bring the country back to the culinary world stage, and to be part of the journey from preparation in Montréal to competition day in Lyon.

THREE CHEFS. ONE TEAM.

Executive Chef Kevin Ramasawmy brings leadership at the highest level of restaurant operations. Chef de Cuisine Donnel English brings creativity, discipline and savoury expertise. Pastry Chef Nicolas Parsy adds technical precision and international competition experience. Together, they form a complete team ready to represent Canada.

A HOME BASE AT BAR GEORGE

Bar George gives the team an established Montréal home base for training, content creation, media opportunities and sponsor activations. Its reputation, audience and distinctive setting let partners connect with the campaign before, during and after Lyon.

MORE THAN LOGO PLACEMENT

Each partnership is built to create meaningful visibility across the journey, chef-led content, product integration, tastings, hosted events, media storytelling and social recognition, depending on level. Partners become part of the story, not simply a logo beside it.

MEET THE TEAM

Three chefs, one kitchen and one shared mission. Drawn from the brigade at Bar George in Montréal, Team Canada combines Donnel English's leadership as captain, Nicolas Parsy's pastry expertise and Kevin Ramasawmy's experience as executive chef and coach.

TEAM CAPTAIN

DONNEL ENGLISH

Chef de Cuisine, Bar George

Chef Donnel English's culinary story begins in Grenada, where his grandparents ran a farm and produce shop. Growing up around fresh ingredients and home cooking gave him an early appreciation for where food comes from, an influence that continues to shape his approach today.

After arriving in Montréal in 2007, Donnel was studying computer science while working as a dishwasher and line cook at Antico Martini. His potential was quickly recognized, leading him to change direction and train at the Pearson School of Culinary Arts.

His career has since taken him through the kitchens of the Ritz-Carlton and Maison Boulud in Montréal, as well as New York's NoMad. He later returned to Montréal to join Chef Kevin Ramasawmy at Bar George, where he progressed from Sous Chef to Chef de Cuisine.

As Team Captain, Donnel brings leadership, discipline and a strong understanding of seasonal, ingredient-driven cuisine to Team Canada.

NICOLAS PARSY

Pastry Chef, Bar George

Raised in Pas-de-Calais in northern France, Nicolas Parsy discovered the power of food by watching his mother and Polish grandmother bring family and friends together around the table.

He developed his craft through experience in France and Switzerland, including the Automobile Club de France and Palace de Menthon. After moving to Montréal in 2018, he worked under Christian Faure, Meilleur Ouvrier de France, before joining the culinary team at Bar George.

Nicolas approaches pastry through a modern interpretation of French tradition. His desserts place flavour first, supported by precise technique, contrasting textures and thoughtful presentation. He sees dessert as the final chapter of the dining experience, not as something separate from it.

Alongside his work at Bar George, Nicolas has earned national recognition and international competition experience, bringing a proven technical and competitive foundation to Team Canada.

KEVIN RAMASAWMY

Executive Chef, Bar George

Kevin Ramasawmy's connection to food began in Mauritius, where he cooked with his mother and accompanied his father to the hotel and restaurant where he worked.

He moved to Montréal in 2004 at the age of 19. After beginning his hospitality career in front-of-house roles, Kevin transitioned into the kitchen and began developing his craft under Chef Jeff Stirrup.

His career later took him to Canoe in Toronto under Chef Anthony Walsh, Splendido with Chef Victor Barry, Daniel in New York and Maison Boulud at Montréal's Ritz-Carlton. These experiences shaped his understanding of Canadian fine dining, international hospitality and high-level kitchen leadership.

In 2017, Kevin reunited with Anthony Walsh to open Bar George at Le Mount Stephen. Since then, he has played a central role in developing the restaurant's culinary identity and leading its brigade.

Kevin's experience also extends to high-profile culinary events. He has cooked for the TGR Haas F1 Team during the Canadian Grand Prix and represented Bar George through an immersive food-and-wine experience at Salterra, a Luxury Collection Resort & Spa in South Caicos. These projects demonstrate his ability to deliver ambitious culinary experiences in demanding international, sporting and luxury-hospitality settings.

As Team Coach, Kevin brings international kitchen experience, operational leadership and a deep understanding of the chefs representing Canada.

IN-KIND & CUSTOM PARTNERSHIPS

➤ In-Kind Partnership Options

We welcome products and services that directly support Team Canada's preparation, travel and participation in Lyon.

Flights, freight, cargo and ground transportation

Hotels and hospitality

Cookware, knives, uniforms and presentation materials

Premium ingredients, beverages and pantry products

Printing, signage and production services

Photography, video, communications and media support

In-kind partnership benefits are determined by the confirmed fair-market value, importance and visibility of the contribution.

➤ Custom Partnerships

Customized packages and mixed cash-and-in-kind contributions are also available. Partnerships may include additional content, hospitality, apparel visibility, category exclusivity or activation opportunities based on the needs of the partner and Team Canada.

WHERE YOUR SUPPORT GOES

Every partnership helps move Team Canada from preparation in Montréal to competition day in Lyon. Contributions are directed toward the practical, technical and creative resources required to compete at an international level.

➤ COMPETITION PREPARATION

Registration, administrative requirements, technical planning and the materials required to meet International Catering Cup standards.

➤ INGREDIENTS & PRESENTATION

Premium ingredients, specialized products, serving pieces, uniforms and presentation materials used throughout training and competition.

➤ FREIGHT & LOGISTICS

Transportation of equipment, tools, uniforms, ingredients and presentation materials between Canada and France.

➤ TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

Kitchen access, recipe testing, rehearsals and the repeated practice needed to refine every element of the team's competition program.

➤ TRAVEL & ACCOMMODATION

Flights, hotels, ground transportation and essential travel expenses for the team's participation in Lyon.

➤ CONTENT, PR & PARTNER ACTIVATION

Photography, video, media outreach, campaign production and sponsor activations that document the journey and extend its reach beyond the competition.

Cash and in-kind contributions both help reduce the cost of representing Canada and allow the team to direct more resources toward preparation and performance.

LET'S BRING CANADA BACK TO THE WORLD STAGE

After ten years away, Team Canada is preparing to return to Lyon.

This journey is led by three chefs, supported by Bar George and powered by partners who believe Canadian culinary talent deserves to be represented on one of the world's most prestigious stages.

Whether through financial support, products, services or a customized activation, every partnership plays a role in helping the team prepare, compete and share Canada's story with the world.
